

Dear Clerk,

I thought your livery company members would be interested in these free Gresham lectures in September. I also wanted to flag that our schools' oracy competition - in its second year now - for year 12 will be launching on 15 Sep, please do share with secondary schools/ Colleges that you know then gres.hm/competition

Some highlights from our September lectures below: (bookable for in person tickets 1 month ahead; online at any time).

Island Universes: Discovering Galaxies beyond the Milky Way by Professor Chris Lintott gres.hm/galaxies-beyond

The discovery that we live in an ordinary galaxy, one of several hundred billion in the observable Universe, instigated a profound change in thinking about our place in the Universe, as this lecture discusses.

Wednesday 13 Sep 6pm Venue TBC or Online/ Watch Later. Ticketed, free.

Why Music Moves Us by Professor Milton Mermikides
gres.hm/music-moves

How is music able to convey and trigger such range and depth of emotion? Why does it elicit joy, sorry, consolation and the chills?
