News Update and Future Events

Dear Supporter of the Livery Climate Action Group,

This news update is mainly to draw your attention to future events that you may wish to attend. But first, some

NEWS

LCAG is going from strength to strength. We have now signed up our 93rd member and we expect more are in the pipeline. Not bad for a pan Livery Group in its first two years! Seven Companies have shared their Climate-Action strategies and plans on our website under Case Studies.

Thank you if you attended the LCAG Annual Conference on 3rd July. We were delighted with the strong attendance and we hope it was both enjoyable and informative. Here is a summary of the event. <https://liverycag.org.uk/lcag-conference-2023-bridging-the-gap-between-knowledge-and-action/>

FUTURE EVENTS

We invite you to register for the following events:

Lt Gen (ret'd) Richard Nugee on Why Should the Military Care about Climate Change? Free Online Seminar 16 November 5pm Register here:

The Fuellers Duke of Edinburgh Future Energy Conference: An all-day event on Wednesday 29 November 2023 at The Royal Society of Medicine, 1 Wimpole Street, London W1G 0AE. Earlybird tickets are available. Register here.

Thank you for being a supporter of LCAG. We really appreciate it.
